SHORT | Animadversions | Upon A | Sermon | Lately Preached | By the Reverend Dr.Tillotson, | Upon | Joshva 24.15. And since Published. | So far as the said Sermon asserteth the Power of the | Magistrate in things of Religion over his Subjects, the same | with that of the Master of a Family over his Family. | The unlawfulness of Preaching the true Religion of Ministers, | where a false Religion is established by Law, without an ex- | traordinary Commission confirmed by Miracles;

and the Hypo- | crise of such Ministers as think themselves obliged to Preach | Christ (though contrary to a Law) in their own Countrey, be- | cause they do not go and do the same in Turkey or Spain. | All which Assertions are shortly Examined. The first proved to be | uncertainly true. The second condemning the Practice of all the | first Ministers of the Gospel, after the Apostles, and of those that | have laboured in Reformation. The third most uncharitable, and | groundless. |

BLAYKLING, John. Antichristian Treachery | Discovered, | And | Its Way Block'd up, | In a clear Distinction betwixt the Christian Apostolical | Spirit, and the Spirit of the Antichristian | Apostate: | Being an Answer to a Book put forth by William Rogers, falsely called, The Christian Quaker Distinguished from the Apostate | and Innovator. | Shewing, the backsliding State of him the said William Rogers (and them of party with | him) from the Gospel Spirit, the Life of Truth, and the first Love: Wherein he, to- | ther with John Story and John Wilkinson (as principally concerned in an Apostate | Work) have set themselves in opposition to Evangelical Church-care, and have aspersed | and abusively slandered the Instruments which God hath made use of touching the same. | In Three Parts. | First, shewing that under the Gospel dispensation, Church-Government, Discipline and | Visible Order is justifiable, necessary, and commendable in the Visible Family of God, | (according to the Doctrine of Christ, and the Apostolical practice) Being brought forth | by, and practiced in the invisible power of God. | Secondly, That John Story and John Wilkinson (together with William Rogers, who hath e- | spoused their Quarrel) and others of party with them, have opposed the aforesaid Visible Discipline and Order (used in the Church of God) to the grief of Gods people, and | to the Breach of the Churches peace. | Shewing also, what Godly care, and brotherly Treating (according to Gospel order) hath | been used to, and concerning the aforesaid John Story and John Wilkinson (and others of party with them) before the Judgment of Truth, according to the power of God in | his people, was given out against them. | Thirdly, That William Rogers, in a prejudiced malicious mind, that watcheth for evil, hath | laboured to Asperce, and abusively to Calumniate the Church of Christ, with respect to | the Government and Order settled therein; and particularly George Fox by name, and | divers others whom by name he hath also with false Accusations treated on that wise; | Several whereof are herein Inserted and spoken to, for the Satisfaction of the honest | hearted to God, where this may come. | . . . KNIGHT, John. The following Speech being spoke | off hand upon the Debates in the House of Commons, you | cannot expect in it the Exactness of Roman Eloquence; | but you have the freedom, and bravery of the Old Ro- | man, and true English Spirit, zealous for the good of their | Country, and bold in all its Dangers. And if other Cor- | porations and Shires would take the like Care as B——l, | they might be as happy in the Choice of their Represen- | tatives; and then, and never till then, may we hope to see | poor England become Old England again, Rich and Happy | at home, Glorious and Renowned abroad.
Towards which, | this worthy Patriot has set a Noble Example; and that | it may Inspire and Incourage others, and prompt and | enable the Country to distinguish such from Pensioners, | and wretched Be-trayers of their Country and Posterity, | is the design of making this Publick, from a Copy which | I procured from a Member of the House of Commons, who | took it in Short Hand, as it was spoke. |
